	Note:	: There	are some scholars who hold	I that these gifts were a type of from Jacob. But	this can only be a human respo	nse sir	nce it was clear that Jacob v	vas to be part of the promised divine	e linea	ge. It is more acceptable ar	nd accurate to see this as merely a cultur	ral "	" between	n two individuals who have been
	at od	lds wit	h each other.

vv. 22	2-23	Q.	What did Jacob do ne	ext and why?
	Α.	1.		(legal) and his two female vives), and acrossinto the Jordan River.	S
		2.	He then sent his
		them	over a natural	re but it may have been simply to ge(river) so that they didn't ginning of next day's journey.	; †
v. 24	Q.	This is such a mysterious verse. What do we observe?
	Α.			on the other side of the rive _ with him until daybreak.	r.

v. 25	Q.	What	do you observe?
	Α.	1.	Jacob was strong in th	ne
		2.	The man had to	Jacob to make him stop.

v. 26	Q.	What was Jacob after and what does it tell you about his knowledge of the man?
	A.	Jacob was after a, but we are not told what?
		2. Only someone of greater can bless another (culturally) so Jacob must have realized this.
		Rashi comments and says that Jacob was calling on the man to his right to the blessings which his father gave him and to which Esau lays claim.
v. 27	Q.	What was the significance of his personal identification?
	A.	Jacob must confess his (deceiver) before he can receive a new one.
v. 28	Q.	What is the significance of the change?
	A.	A new before God and man.
v. 290	a Q.	What did Jacob desire to know?
	Α.	What is your name/?
v. 29k	o. Q.	What was the reply and result?
	A.	1. Why do you?
		2. The man him.
	Note:	Some translations have, "You must ask me my name."
	There	is a sense in which this is not a inquiry of who
	Jacol	o was wrestling with but a cultural way of gaining over anoth	ner. It was said (culturally) that if you could find out the name of a you could have	e power of it. Per	haps this is the re	eason for the denial. Or, as others suggest, it was just a way of the mystery and the of God.

v. 30	Q.	Wha	t did Jacob do?
	Note:	Peni	al means, "face o	f God." "Paneh"	= face; El = Goo	d. Heb.=

Applic	cation:
Q.	How does Jacob picture the problem of partial commitment and the need for radical transformation?
Q. A.	Is this radical transformation always a "wrestling with God"?
Q. A.	Comment on the need to be "alone" with God during those times.
Q. A.	How does fear of man push us into that "alone" time?
